

Application for Replacement Diploma

Please note: This form must be notarized by a Notary Public.

The University Registrar will order replacement diplomas if the original has been damaged or lost or if there has been a change of name. If your name has been changed, you must file a Name Change Affidavit separately.

Enclose with this application a $100.00 check payable to Columbia University, as well as copies of two (2) proofs of identification. Acceptable forms of identification are: passport, birth certificate, driver's license, social security card.

Replacement diplomas display the signatures of the current Columbia University President and Dean of your school but show the original date of the award.
